Reverend Dr. J. Henry Buck, Jr.

Rev. Dr. J. Henry Buck, Jr., is the ninth Senior Pastor of the Historic Grace Baptist Church of Germantown, located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Rev. Buck is described as an unapologetic, courageous and dynamically gifted visionary leader and preacher. Rev. Buck has been called on by many religious organizations and ecumenical institutions to participate in Church and Pastoral Ministries and discussions.

Rev. Buck was born in the city of Port Gibson, MS, to the late Rev. Dr. James Henry Buck, Sr., and the late Mrs. Agnes Marie Aikerson Buck. He completed his education in the Claiborne County Public School System and after beginning a brief period after high school at the Phillips Junior College of Jackson, MS, Rev. Buck decided to enlist into the United States Armed Forces where he received several medals and accommodations of honor, having been assigned to Fort Carson, Colorado 4th Infantry Brigade. After his honorable discharge, Rev. Buck decided to continue his maturation in the State of Colorado, thus moving to Denver. It was at this time, in the year of 1998, that he met and joined the Rising Star Baptist Church of Denver, Colorado under the leadership of Rev. Dr. Jules E. Smith and Rev. Ida G. Smith. Rev. Buck accepted his call to the Gospel Ministry under the teachings and mentoring of Dr. Smith and was later licensed to preach at the Rising Star Baptist Church. He was ordained at the Ebenezer Baptist Church under the leadership of the Rev. Dr. Duane T. Kay. Rev. Buck represents a third generation of preachers in the Buck Family.

After his exit from the military and living in the city of Denver, Colorado, Rev. Buck continued his desire to work in state and federal law enforcement. Rev. Buck went on to complete his educational responsibilities in the Washington, D.C vicinity with a Bachelor's of Science Degree from Potomac University. He went on to continue his graduate work at the Howard University School of Divinity where he earned his Masters of Divinity Degree. Rev. Buck received the Donald Barton Award from the Howard University School of Divinity recognizing his strong spirit for Pastoral Leadership. Rev. Buck was recognized and conferred with an Honorary Doctorate Degree from the Martha's Vineyard Theological Seminary in Daytona Beach, Florida. Rev. Buck has completed his studies at the Colgate Rochester Crozer Divinity School of Rochester, New York where he received his degree in Transformative Leadership. The title of his dissertation was "Reduction of Recidivism Among African Americans Through Church Based Programs".

Presently, as the Senior Pastor of the 127-year-old Grace Baptist Church of Germantown in Philadelphia, Rev. Buck is working on the "Mission Possible" Vision Plan which evolves around the five platforms of Ministry: Mission, Evangelism, Discipleship, Stewardship and Worship. In this plan, Rev. Buck seeks to establish leadership training along with youth and young adult development for the future church. Rev. Buck believes that if the church is going to be successful under the leading and guiding of the Holy Spirit, it must “Return the Church Back to Christ”. Under the “Mission Possible” Ministry, Rev. Buck can draw on the past accomplishments that the Holy Spirit has allowed to be manifest in this present age. He has been instrumental in creating a medical clinic in the community to serve the underprivileged. He has opened an early childhood development center to aid mothers and fathers in the Philadelphia area. He has created entrepreneur opportunities for many youths as well as sending, to date, five students to study at Howard University. Rev. Buck also started a Pie Company to address the unemployment issues of Returning Citizens, and he is a proud member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc.

Under the visionary plan of the “Mission Possible” Ministry, Rev. Buck believes that the Church must be the generator of spiritual, social and economic ingenuity and, the Church should be able to create housing opportunities for those who backs are against the margins of society. The Church must seek to educate its community through the efforts of formal educational opportunities.

Rev. Buck’s hobbies are fishing, HBCU sports, traveling, entrepreneur readings, studying and reading, as well as helping others.

Rev. Buck is married to the beautiful Jennifer Jill Wilson Buck. Jennifer is a graduate of the Northumberland Public School System of Edwardsville, VA. Jennifer completed her undergraduate studies and degree at Mary Washington University, where she was also an inductee into the College Hall of Fame for her participation in collegiate basketball, softball and volleyball. Jennifer also completed her graduate degree at the Marymount University of Arlington, VA, receiving her license as a Physical Therapist. They are the proud parents of Master James H. Buck, III and the Duchess of Philadelphia, Jaida Jill Buck.

Rev. Buck believes that the narrative of his ministry in this season is centered around the words of the Apostle Paul in 2nd Corinthians 4:4 “For we preach not ourselves, but Jesus Christ our Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus’ sake.”

MALACO RECORDING ARTIST

THE SOUL MESSENGERZ

ABOUT THE ARTIST

The Soul Messengerz infuses contemporary and traditional gospel into a quartet style creating a unique brand of soulful psalms designed to uplift and inspire their listeners.

BACKGROUND

TSM (The Soul Messengerz) began in 2009. They were inspired by local as well as famous quartet groups and artist such as, "The Mighty Clouds of Joy," "The Brooklyn Allstars" and Sam Cooke.

DISCOGRAPHY

In 2011, following the lead of such vocal trailblazers, TSM signed with Malaco Records. Their first album was entitled "Grace and Mercy." In 2014 TSM recorded their second project entitled "Only the Strong Survive" Their second project produced a song entitled "Let me lean on you." This song has been an inspiration to many listeners and opened several singing opportunities for TSM.

As a result, TSM have sung in various settings. "The House of Blues" in New Orleans, Louisiana, "The Ronald Regan Building" in Washington DC, as well as several churches, community events, and concert venues have embraced the sounds of TSM.

IN CLOSING

The Soul Messengerz mission is to spread the message of Jesus Christ and inspire hope to those who hear their music.

Reverend A. Michael Black

A. Michael Black was called to serve as Pastor of Antioch Baptist Church, Deanwood on June 4, 2022. His calling of life became crystallized when he delivered his initial sermon at Bethesda Baptist Church in July 1982 and was officially licensed to preach the gospel on January 9, 1983, under Rev. Dr. John D. Bussey and was ordained on November 10, 1984.

Pastor Black recognized his need to be thoroughly equipped to further his calling at the following:

- Washington Bible College, Lanham, Maryland, Bachelor of Arts Degree in Pastoral Ministry.
- Palmer Theological Seminary (formerly Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary), Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Master of Theological Studies in Christian Faith and Public Policy.
- Master of Theological Studies in Christian Faith and Public Policy.
- Doctoral Studies, Wesley Theological Seminary, Washington, DC, in the Leadership Excellence Program.
- Honored with an Honorary Doctor of Divinity Degree in April 2005.

He previously served as the Dean and Site Director for Lancaster Bible College and Capital Seminary and Graduate School at the Greenbelt, Maryland campus, Pastor of Elim Baptist Church, Temple Hills, Maryland, his home church, Bethesda Baptist Church, Washington, DC, Westwood Baptist Church, Richmond, Virginia and Executive Pastor at Heritage Fellowship Church, Reston, Virginia.

Besides serving as a Pastor, he held numerous leadership roles in several organizations:

- President of the Missionary Baptist Ministers' Conference of Washington, DC and Vicinity
- Adjunct Professor at Washington Bible College
- Member of the Board of Directors for Washington Bible College and Capital Bible Seminary, Baptist Convention of the District of Columbia and Vicinity and Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Convention
- Dean of the Baptist Educational Congress of the District of Columbia and Vicinity
- Professor at Washington Baptist Theological Seminary

Pastor Black is married to the former Angli J. Sampson and has three children, Michael, Letitia and Joshua and is also a proud grandfather. In all of his work and ministry, he endeavors to be true to his favorite verse of scripture, "Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, and always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord." (1 Corinthians 15:58 NKJV)

Message from Pastor Frank R. Kelly, Sr.

Dear Beloved Mount Calvary Baptist Church Family,

As I reflect on the remarkable journey of the past 32 years serving as your Pastor, my heart overflows with gratitude for the countless blessings, lessons, and cherished memories we have shared together. It has been an incredible privilege to lead and shepherd this congregation, and I am profoundly thankful for the unwavering support, love, and faith you have shown me throughout the years.

Looking back, I am reminded of the invaluable guidance and wisdom passed down by the leaders who came before me, as well as the transformative power of studying the Word of God and nurturing a personal relationship with Him. These foundations have sustained me through the highs and lows, and I am eternally grateful for the opportunity to grow alongside each and every one of you.

As I prepare to embark on a new chapter in my journey, I leave with a heart full of love and admiration for the people of Mount Calvary. Your dedication to spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ, building meaningful relationships, and fostering a sense of community has truly been a source of inspiration and joy for me.

As I pass the torch to the next generation of leaders and servants, I urge you to remain steadfast in your commitment to connecting with others, sharing the Good News through evangelism, and cultivating disciples through intentional discipleship. Embrace new ideas, welcome renewed energy, and continue to be a beacon of hope and light within and beyond our community.

My prayer for you all is that you will continue to grow in faith, love, and unity, and that the legacy of Mount Calvary Baptist Church will shine brightly for generations to come. Thank you for allowing me to be a part of your lives and for the countless blessings you have bestowed upon me. May God's grace and peace be with you always.

With heartfelt gratitude and love,

The Pastor

Reverend Frank R. Kelly, Sr.

Message from Lady Betty T. Kelly

I came to Mount Calvary over forty years ago and instantly you became my family! I came here for a visit with my family not knowing this would be my home. My early days of being a Pastor's wife were easy for me because I was a member before becoming Lady Kelly.

I was a young lady when I came here and you watched me grow up. I thank you and I give God the glory and the honor. It is because of Him that I live, move, and have my being. Mount Calvary, you are such a loving and warm church and I pray that you will still continue to have those attributes. You are a welcoming place, a hospital, and God's property!

I want you to know – my church family, how much you mean to me and I love and appreciate each of you. You have been a great church family and I am especially grateful that you allowed me to be me! You didn't try to mold me into someone that I was not and I am eternally grateful as we strive to follow after our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ together in love and in unity.

Everything has not always been easy, believe me, I've had some ups and downs. However, 1 Corinthians 15:58 states it explicitly when it says, "Therefore, my beloved brethen, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord." I am indebted to you and as the old saying goes – Parting is such sweet sorrow and that is so true.

Even though I will no longer be Lady Kelly, I will still be me, Mama, Sis, Betty, or whatever you have called me. Please continue to love me as you have always done. Thanks for always being there for me in the good times and the not so good times. Thank you for your smiles, your concerns, your encouragement, and your prayers without ceasing. Thanks for 32 wonderful years.

Thank you for the grace you portray. Thank you for your gentleness, your warm embrace, your patience, your smile, and your listening ear even when you were facing your own trials. Please continue to be the prayer warriors that you are, because the prayers of the righteous availeth much. Remember seasons come and seasons go – Ecclesiastes 3:1-3 says it so vividly. "To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: a time to be born, a time to die; a time to plant,....and a time to build up;"

I pray God will continue to keep you, live in you, dwell in you, and teach you as we continue to follow Him.

So, Mount Calvary, yes, my time is over, 32 years has been a blessing! I just came for a visit and I am still here. Yes, our God is awesome! I ask you to please remember to do these things:

1. Pray for members and others
2. Smile
3. Continue to serve with your gifts and talents
4. Be willing to help others
5. Love one another
6. Be a servant for God
7. Remember RED (Relationships, Evangelism, Discipleship)

Love You Mount Calvary!

Lady Kelly

RE: Congratulations--Retirement

Dear Rev. Frank R. Kelly, Sr.,

Congratulations on reaching this incredible milestone of retirement! Your unwavering dedication over the past 32 years at Mount Calvary—first as a devoted parishioner, then as an insightful assistant pastor, and finally as an inspiring senior pastor—has been nothing short of extraordinary. Your leadership and passion have left an indelible mark on your community, guiding countless individuals through their spiritual journeys and inspiring others to live with greater purpose and faith.

As you step into this new chapter of your life, may it be filled with boundless joy, well-deserved relaxation, and the deep satisfaction that comes from knowing you have made a lasting impact. Here's to a retirement that's as remarkable as the legacy you leave behind. Enjoy every moment—you've certainly earned it!

Dear Pastor, many years ago, God sent you to a small, loving church on the corner of Emmett Drive and Quander Road, and for that, I am truly grateful. I thank your family for unselfishly sharing you with us. I thank you for your many years of labor and sleepless nights, for your spiritual guidance, your Godly wisdom, and for your agape love shown to God's people. As you journey into retirement, I pray God's blessings upon you. Happy Retirement, Pastor and Sister Kelly, and Glory to God for he has done marvelous things. Evelyn Florence-Smith

It is important to note that the United States has not just one criminal legal system but thousands of federal, state, local, and tribal systems. Shockingly, as of March 2024, these systems collectively incarcerate over 1.9 million individuals, according to statistics from the Prison Policy Initiative.

Prisoners In Partnership With Christ Ministry is a non-profit organization designed to provide services to the incarcerated community with a Mission Focused on Setting The Captives Free.

Sponsor Program

Your support has a direct impact on the incarcerated community. You can contribute to our ministry through financial donations via PayPal or Zelle. These donations play a crucial role in funding the mission and vision of the ministry, helping us achieve our goals for the year. In addition, you can choose to make recurring donations, which allows us to manage our expenditures more effectively. For instance, your support can help us purchase supplies such as paper, stamps, bibles, occasional cards, backpacks and cover the printing costs of small or large-scale projects. Your willingness to join us in this mission is deeply appreciated. Together, we can make a difference in the lives of the incarcerated community.

THIRD BAPTIST CHURCH

God shed His Grace on thee:

James 5:11 (NIV)

As you know, we count as blessed those who have persevered. You have heard of Job's perseverance and have seen what the Lord finally brought about. The Lord is full of compassion and mercy.

Pastor Frank R. Kelly, Sr. and Lady Betty T. Kelly ~

May the blessings of Family, Friends and Health, and the satisfaction of a "job well done," fill your life with God's continued blessings.
